

THE "OPERATION FROG EFFECT" MIX AND MATCH CHALLENGE

- Step 1) Select a scene from "Operation Frog Effect".
Step 2) Re-write that scene using a different format and/or using a different character's Point of View from the story that you would like to retell from a different character's Point of View or in a different writing style.

PICK A SCENE

Interior Art by the frog-tastic Gina Perry

PICK ONE MAIN CHARACTER

(you will write from this character's perspective)

- | | |
|-------------|----------------|
| -Ms. Graham | -Blake |
| -Emily | -Kayley |
| -Sharon | -Henry |
| -Kai | -Cecilia |
| -Aviva | -Kermit (frog) |

PICK A FORMAT / STYLE

Below are some examples used in the book:

- graphic novel
- poem
- letter
- movie script
- ... or think of a new one!

Be creative!

Tip: Use this form to brainstorm your scene, your character, and your format. Do your actual writing / illustrating on a separate piece of paper.

Try telling the same scene in more than one format or more than one POV.
What will you come up with?

Have fun with this!

For more ideas, check out the author's website at www.sarahlynnbooks.com

Reflect: What new complications arise when you take on the perspective of a different character?

The "Operation Frog Effect" Mix and Match Challenge!

My
Mix and Match
Graphic Novel
Scene

NAME:

Blank space for drawing or writing.

Blank space for drawing or writing.

Blank space for drawing or writing.

Blank space for drawing or writing.

Blank space for drawing or writing.

Blank space for drawing or writing.

Use this space or a separate piece of paper to complete your challenge!

Notes for educators regarding the "Operation Frog Effect" Mix and Match Challenge

Please feel free to modify this "challenge" to meet the needs of your students.

I have reproducible classroom activities and worksheets with social emotional learning opportunities on my website. There are links to clips from the audio book, which may be useful for teaching the concept of "voice".

www.sarahlynnbooks.com

If you'd like to share your students' work with me, feel free to post it and tag me on twitter or my author facebook page. You can hide any identifying student info to protect privacy.

Twitter: @sarahscheerger
Facebook: @sarahlynnscheergerbooks
Website: www.sarahlynnbooks.com

If you need to contact me, my website is the most efficient way to do so.